PRESS FREEDOM AWARD 2017 A SIGNAL FOR EUROPE

issued for Macedonia

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

REPORTERS WITHOUT BORDERS has been offering the annual PRESS FREEDOM AWARD – A SIGNAL FOR EUROPE to reporters, journalists and publicists in southeast Europe and the neighbouring states of the European Union since 2001. The prize is offered to critical, informative and investigative publications that cover: politics, press freedom, human rights, corruption, societal issues or related topics. Its target group are principally all publicists, regardless of age or status. The PRESS FREEDOM AWARD – A SIGNAL FOR EUROPE 2017 is endowed with a total of 3000 Euro and will go to a journalist from Macedonia.

Jury:

Freimut Duve, the first OSCE Representative for Freedom of the Media

OSCE Representative for Freedom of the Media

Eva Nowotny, President of the Austrian Commission for UNESCO

Wolfgang Petritsch, Austrian Ambassador

Albert Rohan, Former General Secretary of the Austrian ministry of foreign affairs

Rubina Moehring, President of Reporters without Borders Austria

Submission guidelines:

- The deadline for submissions is November 30th, 2017.
- The date of publishing must be between May 3rd, 2016 and September 30th, 2017.
- Letters of reference are of help but not decisive in the evaluation of submissions.
- Detailed letters of reference are obligatory if a life's work is submitted.
- Only one publication can be submitted per person or series, where the following is necessary:

a) the publication in its original language:

In case of printed articles: a hard copy via post mail or a digital scan or PDF-file.

In case of audio/film/video: a download-link or USB-stick.

In case of a book: hard copy or PDF-file.

In case of an online publication: not only the URL but also a screenshot or PDF-file.

b) an English translation of the publication.

In case of a book, we ask for an English translation of the foreword and a letter of reference.

In case of an extended submission of audio/film/video, we ask at least for an English summary, if a full translation is not available.

c) a CV, written in English.

d) if a life's work is handed in, a detailed letter of reference is required.
